The Georgian 1981

Georgetown High School
Georgetown, Massachusetts

https://archive.org/details/georgetownhighsc1981geor

There is a season, turn . . .

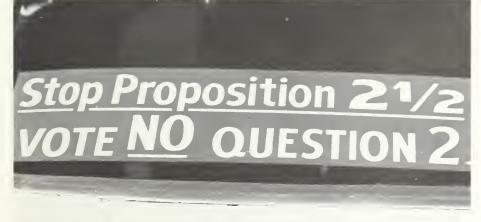

turn . . .

turn . . .

And a time for every purpose . . .

heaven.

A time to be born . . .

A time to die . . .

A time to build up . . .

A time to break down . . .

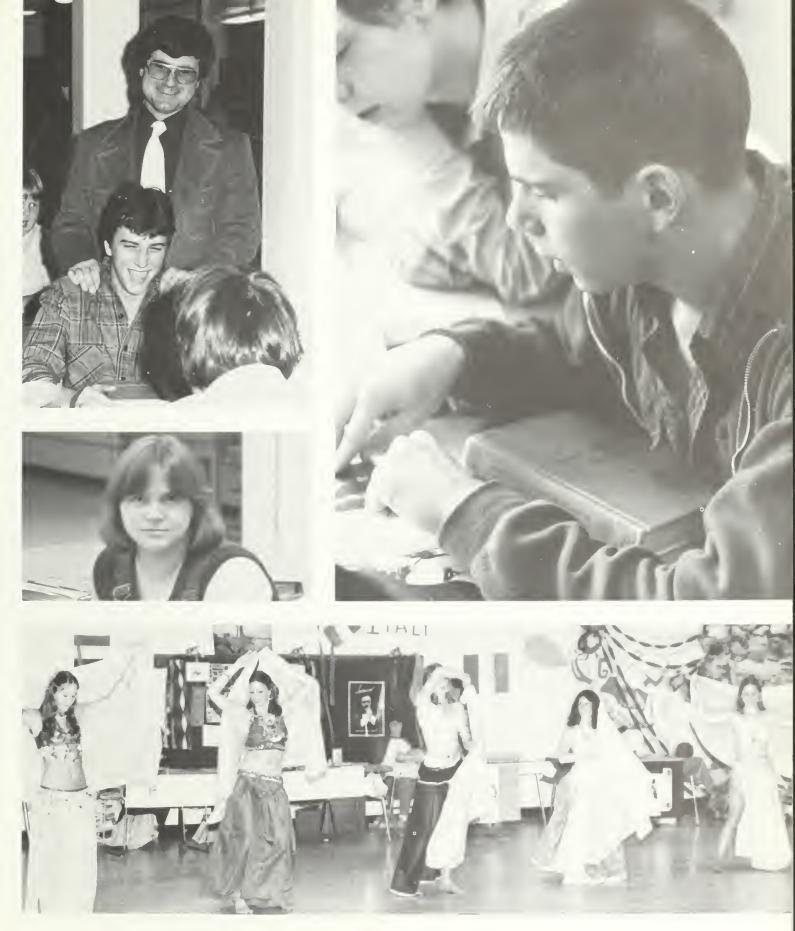

A time of hate . . .

A time of peace . . .

I swear it's not too late.

The 1981 Georgian Dedication Mr. Neal E. Checkoway

In The Beginning, there were many students, separate and different in many ways, each heading in the same direction, but oblivious to all others in his path — until one person cared enough to change all that: Mr. Neal Checkoway.

Taking on the monumental task of class advisor, this very special person led us through the wilderness of our high school years, and toward our ultimate destination: the promised graduation.

The journey was a difficult one, but Mr. Checkoway never let us down, and never lost faith in our class. When we became lazy, he set us on our toes (Marathon Dances). When we grew bored and disinterested, he performed gymnastics in class (closet door!). When we were tired and cold, he gave us heat (insulators), and when we were disobedient, he punished us (coupon books), knowing we would thank him in the end.

Soon it came to pass that Mr. Checkoway had succeeded in leading his and our class to the promised graduation, with a strength, confidence and ability that has helped each of us to grow and mature as individuals. And now, in the end, we are a class devoted to each other, and to you, Mr. Checkoway. You've been our teacher and our advisor, but more importantly, you've been our friend.

"Thank you much,"

The Class of 1981

Ruth Lynah and Emine Erdem

Ruth Lynah of Georgetown High School and Emine Erdem of Izmir, Turkey, began exchanging letters three years ago, when they were given each other's addresses by a mutual friend living in Turkey.

The girls found they had many interests in common, from participating in school sports to collecting items from around the world for their hobbies. Emine helped Ruth collect native dolls, and Ruth sent stamps for Emine's collection.

During the summer of 1980, the Lynah family invited Emine to spend the year with them. Emine entered G.H.S. as a junior in September, and although she misses her family, she says she has enjoyed school, playing J.V. basketball, and all the friends she has met.

We at Georgetown High School will miss Emine next year and wish her the very best of luck as a senior in Turkey.

"This year's field hockey team was truly a pleasure to coach. There was a fine nucleus of senior athletes who contributed immensely to the success of the team. It was a highly skilled team that always played with a great deal of intensity, enthusiasm and pride. It was a season that everyone on the team will always remember. This team will always hold a special place in my memory and heart. Thank you ladies for a tremendous season."

A time of thanks . . .

The challenge of creating a yearbook that is unique, and yet still representative of our memorable high school years has been a great task, but thanks to the efforts of many individuals, the project has been a rewarding experience for all who participated.

Our first and utmost thanks goes to our yearbook advisor, Mrs. Patricia Gilmartin. At the brink of our despair, Mrs. Gilmartin volunteered to share her time and knowledge, through our first drafts, right down to the final deadline. For her help and concern, we are truly grateful.

There are many other individuals who have made our high school years and our yearbook memorable. To the following people we offer our sincere thanks and a special place in our memories and hearts: Mrs. Sheila Kelly, for her generous dedication to club banquets and activities; Mrs. Mary Merrill, for her thoughtfulness in organizing our class playbooks and patron drives; and for their varied assistance in photographic binds, our thanks go to Mr. Keith Sullivan, Mr. Winston "Buddy" Cushman, Mr. Jim Simmons, Mr. Dave Luca and Mr. William Bannister. Thanks for coming to our rescue when we needed a helping hand.

Last, but certainly not least, thank you, the patrons of the yearbook who have offered encouragement and guidance through all of our high school years. From our principal, Gerald Silverman, to our advisors, coaches, teachers, friends and fellow classmates, we have shared a part of our lives that we will never forget — our years at Georgetown High School.

Another special person to whom we extend our deepest appreciation is Miss Donna Privitera. Her years of untiring devotion as director of drama club and senior class plays, and her enthusiasm for life and students of our school, make Miss Priv a unique individual whom we will always remember. Thanks just for being you, Miss Priv.

Admit it you guys — after hours of planning, stamping, cropping, and drawing lines through little boxes, it was worth it. There weren't always as many hours in the day as we would have liked, but we made it and we survived - barely! - with a yearbook that both you and I can be proud of. Each of us has contributed to the book in a different way, and now, rather than pacing the floor and shouting "Work!", I'd like to say "Thanks" to those who helped out.

For drafting our final layouts, thanks Sandra, Susan K., Susan D., Susan H., Karen, Lorie, Joanne, Bill, and Tommy. For typing, thanks go to Mary, Lisa, Ingrid and Chrissy, for photos and sports scores, Tom, Paul, Scott, and Mike, and for yearbook sales, ads and duties as photographer tour-guides, thanks Scott, Jimmy, Lea, and June.

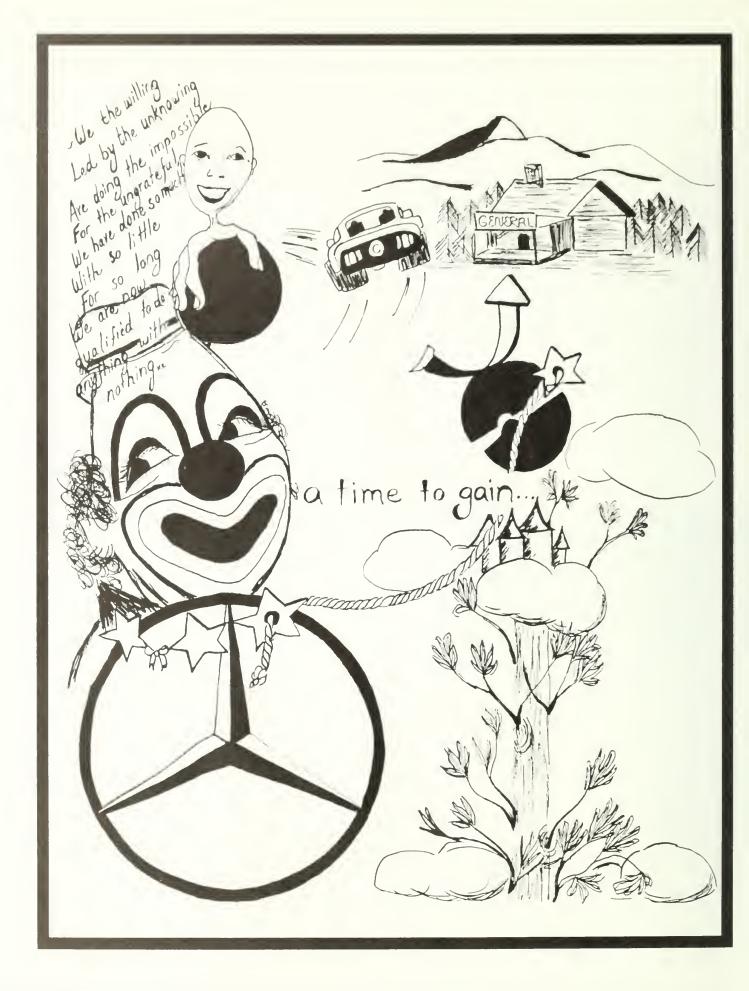

A special note of thanks goes to Karin Watkins for her unique cover design and advertisement art work, and for assistance in all of the above categories, the person who deserves the most recognition is Susanne L'Hommedieu. You've been my right arm, Sue, and I knew that between you, me and Mrs. Gilmartin, we would manage to pull it off.

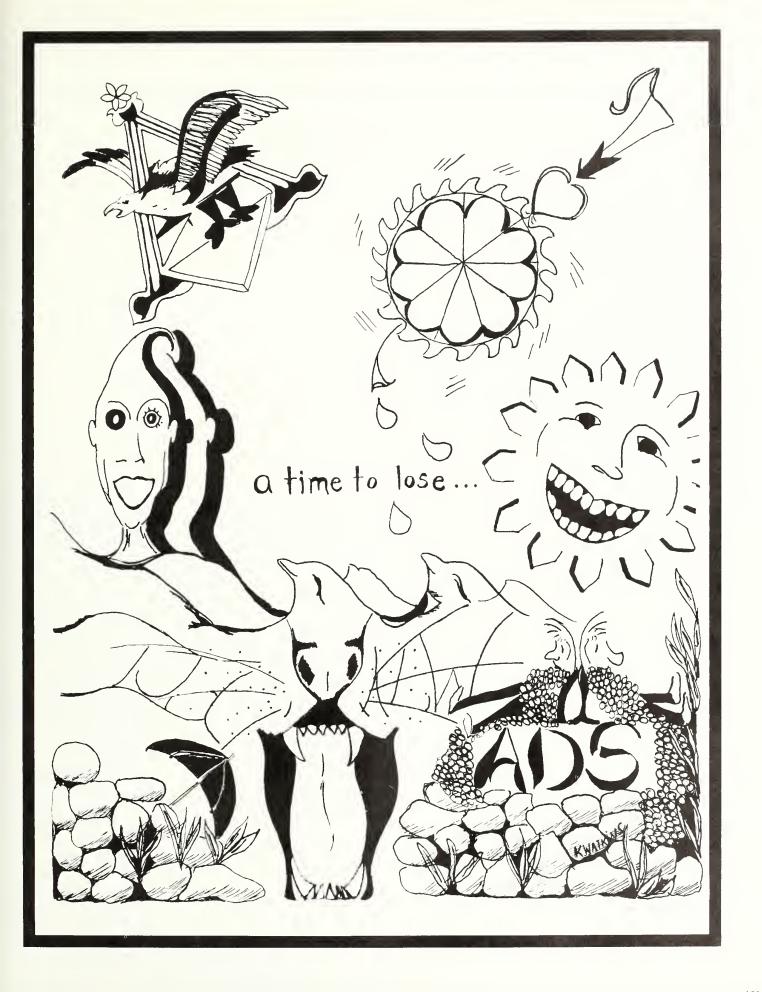

Even after hours of sleep missed, tears cried, and homework neglected, I'll never forget this year — and neither will you. And if you enjoy the book as much as I have, then that's thanks enough for me. Goodbye, good luck and thanks, G.H.S.

Senior Class Will

- I, Larry Abreu, leave four untouched walls to the Big H.
- I, Dave Arriel, leave my running shoes to anyone who is dumb enough to chase after D.P.Q.!
- l, Brenda Ayers, leave our yearbook to Martha Johnson, a "Private Lightning" t-shirt to Mr. Cairns, a pickle to Joan and my physics problems to Jim Shep.
- 1, Matt Besse, leave the hood of my Buick to the Industrial Arts Department.
- I, David Bjornholm, leave my parking space #86 to whoever keeps parking in it.
- l, Don Boyer, leave all my worthy possessions to Trish.
- Lorraine Cassotis, leave Cathie Dowdie all the good times we've had together, and Nick, all the teachers who can handle him.
- l, Valerie Clark, leave Trissy a rake, Justin, Becky and Brandon, giggles, Lee, Mary-Alice and Chris, Dexatrim.
- I, Mike Clarke, leave Michelle P. my locker, and M.N. all my love.
- Karen Coyne, leave my exceptional belly-dancing abilities within the confines of this school.
- 1, Mary Crimp, leave my flash pants to David and my whiplash collar to Pam.
- l, Joe DeSisto, leave Bob Bray a new set of nerves, my permission to write 1000 absent notes, and all my empty beer bottles in the parking lot.
- Tom Drapeau, leave all my tardiness to anyone who wants it, but I must take my elite position as cafe monitor.
- Mike Duggan, leave my parking space to whoever keeps parking in it, and my job as school mailman to any fool who wants it.
- I, Sue Dullea, leave my parking space #76 to anyone who wants to use it. (Was it ever really mine?!)
- I, Peter Durkee, leave all my troubles behind.
- 1, Steve Fatyol, leave my nickname, "Grape Ape."
- Tom Fielding, leave the Sr. Prom to carry on, my "prep" to Matt Rood, and my position as president to a deserving junior who will soon learn that all the hard work and dedication was worth while.
- l, June Fitton, leave Dan Fitton my grades and my senior year.
- l, Linda Gillis, leave my sister Debby my seat in the office, my excuses for leaving school, my parking space, my braces and my major regret.
- I, Chris Gissel, leave my car to whoever wants it, a big red balloon to Mr. Tardiff, peace to the librarians, and not spum to Karin Swier.
- l, Louie Grasso, leave Mr. Bray my own personal copy of "Shut upaya face."
- l, Heather Haller, leave Mr. Bray my phone number at U. Mass so he can give me a wake-up call every morning.
- I, Scott Hatch, leave Marty Weinstein a cross country team to captain, and Coach Cairns a .500 season.
- l, Sue Hatch, leave Caren McDonald my #44 shirt, and of course, my bunny suit to Mr. Lowell so he may join Martha J. next year. Silwy Wabbits.
- Nigel Heales, leave my expertise in running the Guidance Office to Mrs. Gilmartin, the queen to Mrs. Leach and the ambulance to Mrs. Kinson.
- I, Scott Heil, leave my tardy excuses, absent excuses, dismissal excuses and my charming smartness smile with Mr. Bray.
- l, George Heisler, leave all my unfinished work and cluttered locker to underclassmen.
- l, Dave Henderson, leave this school to any unlucky person coming in next year.
- Joyce Hooper, leave my positions in OEA to anyone who has the courage to undertake them, and my gratitude to Mrs. Merrill for all she's done for me.
- I, Linc Jackson, leave to Mr. Cairns, all my Pierre Cardin clothes and to Ms. Simpson, a night out.
- I, Lori Johnson, leave what little remains of my torn and tattered heart to Beardso-face . . . forever.
- I, Carolyn Judge, leave my broken alarm clock to and students who aren't late to Mr. Bray.
- I, Susan Kavanaugh, leave my locker and the neighborhood soap opera to the senior hall.
- I, Susanne L'Hommedieu, leave a frisbee to Simp, and my Physics book to Mr. Lowell and Miss Roy to do with as they see fit.
- l, Pete Lobley, leave all the small rodents and mammals for the other kids to learn about in Miss Priv's class.
- I, Dan Mades, leave Mr. Lowell both of my physics books, and to Mr. McNally, my unfinished calculus word problems.
- l, Mike McCarthy, leave my drafting pencil to anybody with the skill.
- l, Peter McCarthy, leave Mr. Cairns all my make-up work from American Dream and Mass Media. I also leave K.D. a Nike shirt.
- l, Greg McDonald, leave Tom Mulligan's truck to anyone crazy enough to ride in it, and my spidey suit to Mike Prescott.
- l, Pat McGlynn, leave my enthusiasm to Coach Cairns, my tough (?) schedule and my F, G and H studies to Chris Page, my daredevil suit to Ken Boyer and my passenger seat to anyone crazy enough to sit there when Noodle drives.

- Cindy Meisner, leave Valerie and Heather my unique ability to blow smoke rings and to Brandon, giggles.
- I, Linda Minott, leave the hallways to any Junior who would rather roam around than sit in classes.
- Jeff Moyer, leave my seat on the basketball bench, beside Mr. Haddad to Marty Einstein, my F, G and H. studies to anyone smart enough to make their schedule out to take them.
- l, Danny Mullane, leave my 45-50 shot games to the next G-town goalie If he lives!
- Tom Mulligan, leave my turtle shell to Mark D., my Phil. lawyer to Bobby, my D.L.L. to P.S.T. Good Luck.
- I, Beth Nagle, leave my diplomacy and good-naturedness to Mr. Bray.
- I, Janet Nizwantowski, leave my position in field-hockey open for anyone who can run fast and handle the ball well. I also leave G-town High for good.
- I, Jamie Page, leave my sports jerseys, #'s 10 and 12, to my brother Steven, my jumpshot to Chris, and all my battles in B-ball practice with Larry Abreu.
- l, Joanne Pasquale, leave my "flipper" laugh to Keira.
- l, Bob Peabody, leave my well-used mistletoe to anybody who likes the thrill of the hunt, and my sound-effected stories to Wendy Prince.
- l, Karlyn Phillips, leave my basketball skills (?) to Craig Harper.
- l, James Proctor, leave everything, except me, my diploma, and all my disagreements with the administration.
- Lisa Purcell, leave all my Disney Land characters to Patty Cox for E block. I leave G.H.S. forever to be with Bob Soucy.
- l, Scott Radford, leave my saxaphone position to anyone who wants it, my band presidency to Erik Thompson, and it's only a movie.
- I, Pam Reynolds, leave my mailbox and my driveway to Sue so she can practice backing up.
- l, Bob Riley, leave my spot on the bench and the bruises on my right leg to Coach Haddad.
- 1. Rick Sedler, leave my rocks to the ladies of New York.
- 1, Stacey Shaw, leave G.H.S. and my tardiness record to Kelly.
- Paul Shay, leave my study habits to Mr. Cairns and my stoicism to Ernie Fitton. May it help him to become a better pitcher.
- I, Jim Shepherd, leave my Harvard application in Mr. Bray's wastebasket, and my H+ ions to the science department.
- 1, Chris Silver, leave G-town High, hopefully, permanently, to anyone who can handle it.
- l, Christine Smith, leave Lori Lou the Infamous Green Disco Socks.
- 1, Debbie Swanton, leave my pregame hives to anyone who wants them
- 1, Ingrid Swier, leave my driving experience to Pam "Crash" Reynolds.
- I, Kenny Thompson, leave my book of shooting to Coach Haddad, my hatred of Fluffy to my little sister, and two types of oranges to the city of New York.
- l, Peter Tibbetts, leave the fireman's monument to anyone worthy of taking it down again, and Miss Tish, another dozen roses.
- l, Karen Valerio, leave my seat in Kwantz's bathroom to Dianne Codair.
- l, Michael Ventura, leave all my editorials to Mr. Dostie, but my Neil Young collection, l ${\tt take}$  with me, for no one else is worthy of taking it.
- I, Karyn Walker, leave to Boba, K.D. and Martha, the memories and the future good times to come at Fitchburg and the Cape, and my field hockey #1 to Wendy Prince.
- l, Karin Watkins, leave all my personal excuses for being late and absent to my sister Pam to use. Touche, Mr. Bray.
- l, Scott Watson, leave Ambulance 1 to Mrs. Kinson, Ambulance 2 to Mrs. Leach, the Queen to Mrs. Leach, Westinghouse to Jackie and Eileen, and the computer cards and tardy slips to Bob Bray.
- l, Sandra Wells, leave P.E. talks to Kathy and E block to Mike.
- I, Lora Weinstein, leave my spot on the bumwarmer to any deserving bum.
- I, Scott Wilson, leave Ruthann to my brother, my sincere apologies to Mrs. Phillips, and my Bob Seger collection to anyone worthy of the honor.
- l, Lisa Wood, leave the headless Mombo to whoever finds him, and one punch in the head to Beardso-face for the abuse of Lori.
- We, Bill Bushnell and Tom Goodwin, leave a dozen eggs and a gallon of green sub cleaner to anyone who wants 30 hours of fun.
- We, the Senior Class, leave the underclassmen a lot of unity, and Mr. Checkoway all our love.
- I, Neal Checkoway, leave the Class of 1981 the spirit week trophy you actually won.
- *Due to the tardiness of a voting ballot, one judge's scores were not tallied in the decision of the "Spirit Week" winner. Although the Class of 1983 is certainly to be commended on its fine winning performance in the competition, had all scores been received on time, the Seniors would have won Spirit Week.

  Seniors, congratulate yourselves on a job well done!
